Dick, Paul,

Today's Washington Post has a full-page reprint of an Atlanta magazine article on Mitchell WerBel I think you should both read, Dick for more reasons than Paul (like Bon Brown's silencer weapon, the sniper rifle). I will attempt to get copies for each of you because copying this presents a problem with my machine.

The Post story does not identify the issue of Atlanta.

Author: Roger Williams.

After you read it, if there are nay comments, I'd be interested.

Sincerely,
